CHAPTER TWO

Us
how it began

Every love story has a first page. Ours is still being written.

These are the very first photographs of us: the start of something golden, a little awkward, completely ours. Every chapter since has been my favourite.

MAY 2026 · THE FIRST PAGES OF US

"Of all the pages in my life, these are the ones I'd read again and again."

Loved First

Long before I knew her name, she was already someone's whole heart.

Every bit of warmth she gives the world was first given to her by the people who raised her, held her and believed in her. To her family: thank you for the girl you gave the world. I promise to keep loving her the way you taught her she deserved.

Where her kindness was learned.

20 Reasons I Love You

One for every year. (There are thousands more.)

1. Your smile, which fixes my worst days.
2. The way you face every storm in our relationship, calmly and together.
3. How you keep our story going, with patience and a whole heart.
4. You make ordinary moments feel like celebrations.
5. You listen with your whole heart.
6. Your beautiful, stubborn strength.
7. The little names you call me. We never need our real ones.
8. You make me want to be a better man.
9. Your hand fits perfectly in mine.
10. You are my calm when everything is loud.
11. Your honesty, even when it's hard.
12. The way you care for the people you love.
13. You make silence feel comfortable.
14. The way you dream about our future, and put me in every picture.
15. The way you look at me, as if I were your whole world.
16. The way you hold on to my words, and keep every one of them.
17. You are beautiful, inside and out.
18. You chose me, and you keep choosing me.
19. Every day with you feels like a gift.
20. Because you are you, and there is no one else like you.

...and a million more I'll keep telling you

The Little Things

Love isn't only in the grand moments. It lives in the small ones.

OUR LOVE LANGUAGE

উঠাসো? awake yet?

খাইছো? have you eaten?

ঘুমায় গেছো? asleep already?

ঐ... এই... hey, you...

জানো? you know what?

Love isn't saying "I love you" every minute. It lives in these little questions and everything they carry: respect for each other, small efforts every day, trust, believing in each other, and always keeping our word.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

My dearest Athay,

Every magazine needs a cover star. For this one, there was never a question.

For months I have been quietly collecting you: the photos you laughed at, the ones you pretended not to like, the ones I took when you weren't looking. Somewhere along the way I realised I wasn't keeping pictures. I was keeping proof that the best days of my life all have your name on them.

So here it is, your very own issue. Twenty pages for twenty years. It isn't perfect, but every word in it is true, and every page was made thinking of you.

Happy 20th birthday, my love. Turn the pages slowly.

"Every word in it is true, and every page was made thinking of you."

EXCLUSIVE · A LOVE LETTER

Athay,

I don't always find the right words when I'm standing in front of you, so I wanted to write them down where they can stay. You came into my life and quietly rearranged it. The days are brighter, the future feels closer, and the word "home" has started to sound a lot like your name.

If I could give you one thing for your birthday, it would be the chance to see yourself through my eyes. You would see a girl who lights up a room without trying, who loves with her whole heart, and who makes the most ordinary day feel like a festival.

Twenty looks beautiful on you. I hope this year brings everything you've been quietly wishing for: new adventures, big dreams coming true, golden evenings and a hundred reasons to laugh every single day. And through all of it, I hope you always know this: wherever life takes you, you will never have to wonder whether you are loved. You are. Completely. Endlessly. Always.

Never change; let me adapt to you instead. I want to give you my whole world, everything I am. You will dwell forever in the depths of my heart. Stay by my side, as my wife. I love you deeply, and I long to love you infinitely more.

Thank you for every smile, every hug, every "I'm here". Thank you for your patience with me and for every moment you have chosen to share with me. Thank you for being my best friend, my safe place and my favourite person in the whole world. I know I'm not perfect, but I promise to keep trying, to keep showing up, and to keep loving you a little more each day.

Happy birthday, my love. শুভ জন্মদিন। Here's to you, to us, and to every page we haven't written yet.

Forever yours,

Ankan
